

Join the Informal Family Child Care Project for a Workshop on Gender, Sexuality and the Family in Early Childhood Education

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT!

When and how do children develop an understanding of gender?

How can we encourage children's comfort and respect for their own body and other people's bodies?

How can we include and celebrate the diversity of families and family structures in our programs?

To open up this conversation, we are offering a workshop designed to spark discussion, facilitate the development of a shared language, and provide everyone the resources they need to make their classrooms and homes safe spaces for the development and exploration of identity.
