WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THE CARES ACT

IF YOU ARE ALREADY APPROVED FOR UI BENEFITS:

WHAT SHOULD YOU DO?

Do nothing except continue to certify weekly. Your benefits will automatically be updated. Please do not call, it will only make it difficult for others to reach an agent.

YOU MAY QUALIFY TO RECEIVE:

- ✓ 39 weeks of PUA benefits.
- ✓ An additional $600/week until 7/31/2020.
(Payments begin 4/5/2020)
- ✓ Corona Virus update: New York is providing updates on unemployment Insurance changed related to COVID-19:

Am I eligible?

In March 2020, new federal law greatly expanded unemployment insurance. Many workers who were not previously covered are now eligible. You may now be eligible if any of the following are true:

- Your employer permanently or temporarily laid you off due to coronavirus measures
- Your employer reduced your work hours due to coronavirus measures
- You are self-employed and have lost income due to coronavirus measures
- You're quarantined and can't work due to coronavirus
- You're unable to work due to a risk of exposure to coronavirus
- You can't work because you're caring for a family member due to coronavirus

In addition to expanding eligibility, new federal law also:

- Increases the weekly benefit amount that states currently provide by $ 600, until July 31, 2020
- Provides an additional 13 weeks of benefits for people who are still unemployed after their state benefit period runs out
